

Into the Wild Week #5

Discussion Questions:

Conversation Starter: Baptisms are happening in the next few weeks at the church, is anyone interested in taking a next step in this area?

First Stop:

- What is something you have learned about yourself and God these last 5 weeks?
- Jesus set a beautiful example of making the journey He was on, one of significance. Do you make the most of the life you have been given and the journey you have been called to?
- Busyness can often fill up our lives and we can miss out on being used by God. How can we be determined to say yes to the right things and allow God to direct our steps?

Mile Markers:

- If we only look at the destination or the end outcome we will miss so many things along the way. How can we walk through life intentionally and take in the life God has for us?
- Let's discuss the differences between having a heavenly perspective and a worldly one. What are some of the key components of each?
- Reflecting on the entire series, what are some key takeaways or lessons that you've gained from "Into the Wild"? How will you apply these lessons to your ongoing journey of faith?

Destination:

- What significant work have you seen God do in your life?
- Pastor Jeremy encourages us to live life to the fullest and empower others with our journey. How can we actively engage with our communities and demonstrate the love and compassion of Christ in our daily interactions?
- This week references Revelation 21:3-5 and the promise of heaven. How does this promise influence your perspective on life's challenges and the ultimate purpose of your journey on Earth?
