

Into the Wild Week #4

Discussion Questions:

Conversation Starter: What has been something you have enjoyed about the “Into the Wild” Series so far?

First Stop:

- How can we draw strength from our past victories to help us navigate the challenges we're facing right now?
- What does it look like to use valley moments as invitations to trust God?
- How does your perspective change, knowing that your season in the “valley” is temporary, or as Pastor Jeremy said, “You’re just passing through”?
- What perspective can we gain from Psalm 34:19?

Mile Markers:

- Can you share a time in your life when you had to combat the mind games of the enemy when he tried to distract you and get you to focus on the hardship of your circumstance rather than embracing the beauty that CAN be found in the valley?
- How can we change our mindset from worst-case scenario thinking to living out our battles knowing that God is with us?
- God is in control; the battle is His, but we also have a role to play in our victory. What is our role in the valley?

Destination:

- Even though the valley moments of life are some of the lowest, this is also when God can do some of His best work. How have you been intentional with your valley seasons and what have you seen God do?
- Perspective changes everything. As we mature in our faith, we may naturally default to a position of trusting God when facing a battle. In your own words, how would you communicate the process to get to that place in your relationship of learning to trust Jesus?
- After hearing about the life of David and the kind of spirit he had when facing valley moments, What qualities or characteristics does this spirit entail, and how can you cultivate it in your own life?
